Psalm 90:title–17 (NRSV)

God's Eternity and Human Frailty

1 Lord, you have been our dwelling place
in all generations.

2 Before the mountains were brought forth,
or ever you had formed the earth and the world,
from everlasting to everlasting you are God.

3 You turn us back to dust,
and say, “Turn back, you mortals.”

4 For a thousand years in your sight
are like yesterday when it is past, or like a watch in the night.

5 You sweep them away; they are like a
dream,
like grass that is renewed in the morning;

6 in the morning it flourishes and is renewed;
in the evening it fades and withers.

Psalm 90:title–17 (NRSV)
God's Eternity and Human Frailty

- 7 For we are consumed by your anger;
by your wrath we are overwhelmed.
- 8 You have set our iniquities before you,
our secret sins in the light of your countenance.
- 9 For all our days pass away under your wrath;
our years come to an end like a sigh.
- 10 The days of our life are seventy years,
or perhaps eighty, if we are strong;
even then their span is only toil and trouble;
they are soon gone, and we fly away.
- 11 Who considers the power of your anger?
Your wrath is as great as the fear that is due you.
- 12 So teach us to count our days
that we may gain a wise heart.

Psalm 90:title–17 (NRSV)
God's Eternity and Human Frailty

¹² So teach us to count our days
that we may gain a wise heart.

¹³ Turn, O Lord! How long?

Have compassion on your servants!

¹⁴ Satisfy us in the morning with your steadfast love,
so that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.

¹⁵ Make us glad as many days as you have afflicted us,
and as many years as we have seen evil.

¹⁶ Let your work be manifest to your servants,
and your glorious power to their children.

¹⁷ Let the favor of the Lord our God be upon us,
and prosper for us the work of our hands—
O prosper the work of our hands!

Planning our Lives

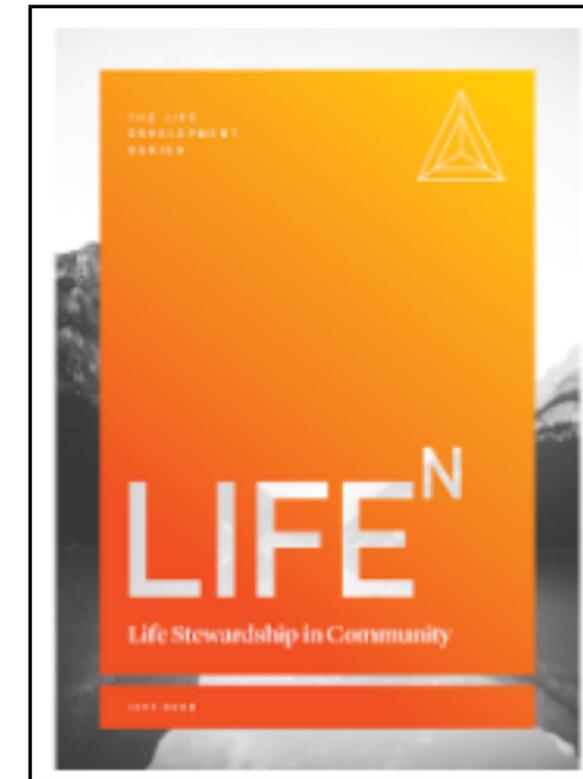

We will spend the next three weeks preparing to live intentionally in 2019. We all want to live life to the fullest, lives that reach their full potential. We will be following our tool Lifeⁿ as a guide in this process.

Outline of our time:

Jan 6 - Story, Purpose and Abilities

Jan 13 - Legacy and Strategy

Jan 20 - Habits

Planning our Lives

Introduction to Lifeⁿ

Lifeⁿ is about living life to the fullest. A Life that reaches its full potential. A life that

- Is full of joy, thankfulness
- Makes a difference and has an impact in this world, starting with our own family, and communities

Hebrew wisdom, hokmah means - skill in living

- This is only attained when we build our lives around core, sound principles of living and practice them regularly
- We must get a sense of where we are going in life, then focus on habits and processes of acquiring wisdom across our lifetime.
- If you don't design your life, chance are you'll fall into someone else's plan. Guess what they have planned for you? Not much.

Planning our Lives

Planning

Your Story - the historical circumstances, beyond your control that have shaped your life

Your Purpose - in light of your story, why do you exist, what do you have to contribute

Your Abilities - your uniquely given gifts and abilities, how they fit into your role

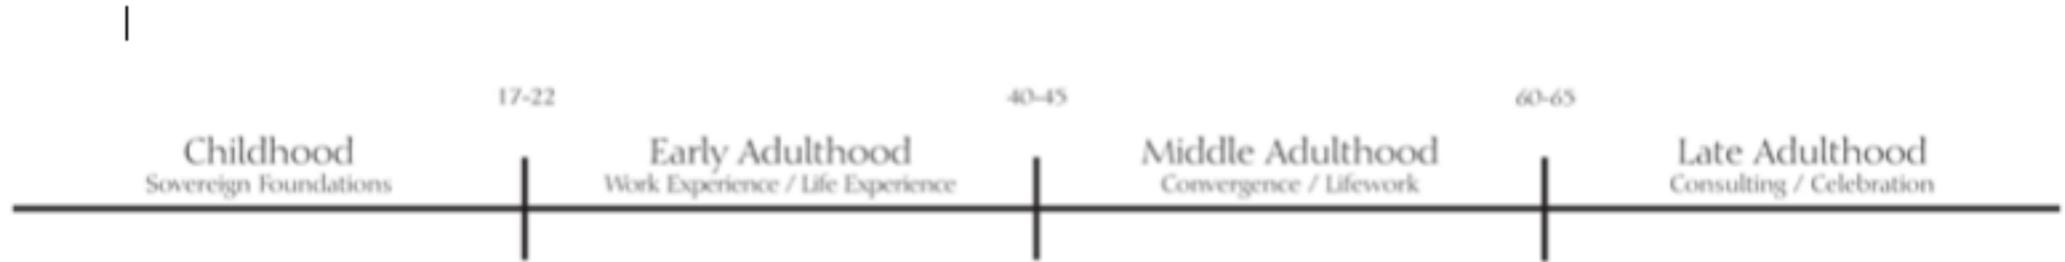

Your Legacy - what are you passing on to others, how will you be remembered

Living it Out

Your Strategy - making your legacy a reality, focusing on our whole life strategy planning

Your Habits - carefully developing habits and disciplines that serve your entire life

My Story

Your Abilities

- We encourage everyone to work through this in Lifeⁿ
- work through “Identifying”
- or complete your MAP

My Abilities and LifeWork Vision

My Commitment to Doing a SIMA Profile

- I will do a MAP Approximation” using The Power of Uniqueness.
- I will do a MAP through a People Management affiliate.

Current LifeWork Inventory

- I like my situation and want to continue to develop myself along this course.
- I don't like my current work situation and want to begin a gradual restructuring of the future, building new or additional directions over the next 5 to 10 years
- I want to radically restructure my lifework situation and would like to accomplish the changes within a two-year period.
- I am making enough money (or am beginning to) to bring about greater freedom in my lifework choices and desire to carefully evaluate how to steward my time and resources.

Describe briefly your current situation. Why did you choose your selection above? Comment on your lifework satisfaction, income level and future needs, the fit of your lifework to your abilities, the relative value of your lifework, additional training needs, etc.

Planning our Lives

Your Purpose

Four building blocks of wisdom - Individual, Family, Community, Global Community

- Individual - stewarding the development of our mind, especially our theological education
- Family - the base of our Christian life
- Community - this includes our church family, neighborhood and city, as Christ followers we want to seek the welfare and be an impact on our city
- Global Community - we are all part of a state and nation, which because of technology is part of the entire world. Each area has a unique culture and language, we are all part of the world, a global village, thus we have the opportunity to shape or at least be part of the global conversations.
